

The Churches Invite You to Their Services Tomorrow

Again today on the regular Saturday Church Page in another part of this issue, the Churches of this community cordially invite you to attend Divine Worship tomorrow. They need YOUR presence and support in their earnest efforts to KEEP THIS THE BEST PLACE FOR A HOME.

The Federated Council of the Churches of Christ in America set aside this week to be observed as a Week of Prayer by Protestant Churches.

The movement was begun several years ago in the aim of promoting unity of interest, faith and action on the part of Protestant denominations.

Practically all the Churches of the United States, Canada, England and Australia observe this Week of Prayer at the beginning of the new year. The topic for today is "Home Missions." Never before has it been of such vital importance for everyone to give this subject the most prayerful consideration, especially those persons who must make a careful selection of the worthy causes to which they can contribute.

Just as "Faith without works is dead," so does Prayer without Faith fall far short of its real power to aid mankind. Attendance at services of the Church on Sunday will renew the spiritual life of all and increase one's faith in Prayer and his fellowmen.

CANADA LIQUOR UP

PRICES RISE AS THIRSTY AMERICANS SWAMP MONTREAL.

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

MONTREAL, Jan. 8.—French-Canadians today set up a general howl as the retail price of 20-year-old Frapin Brandy rose to $3.33 a quart.

Other quotations by the case of 12 quarts on the Montreal Thirst Exchange are:

Gordon Glen	$2.60
Durbin's Irish	$3.00
Chapin's 2-Star Scotch	21.50
Peter Dawson's Old Curio
Scotch	45.00
Italian Vermouth	25.00
Amouillado Sherry	30.00
Pat. Kipper Champagne	61.00
Claret's 40-Year Port	35.00
Charles Burgundy	25.00

These prices, however, are for shipment into Ontario.

Thirty American tourists crowding Montreal are being charged $5 a quart plus 25¢ for prescription for the next sprays of Scotch whiskey.

The influx of thirsty Yanks has swamped Montreal hotels and rooming houses.

Sleigh drivers report record tips, but complain that no one wants to drive up Mount Royal or along St. Catherine's street, preferring the streets with many stops.

Bars are not selling hard liquor in Montreal, according to the law. But there are thousands of bars now retailing the genuine "bottled in bond" at from 15 to 35 cents a drink.

PROMINENT OFFICIALS OF NATIONAL RACING GAME HERE FOR TRIALS

WORLD RECORDS MAY BE BROKEN DURING THE COMING WEEK

Fred J. Wagner, world famed official starter of automobile races, A. H. Means, secretary of the contest board of the American Automobile Association, under whose auspices all world record trials are made, and A. Bachle, chief engineer of the Paige-Detroit Motor Car company, of Detroit, arrived in Daytona this morning, to participate in the world trials which Ralph Mulford, world renowned racing car driver, will make next week, in an attempt to lower all world stock car records on Daytona Beach, from one to 10 miles.

In addition to the arrival of the above mentioned officials, Mulford received the pleasing news that Capt. R. A. Leavell, formerly of the regular army, and official timekeeper for world records, will arrive in Daytona tomorrow, as he left Chicago Friday for Daytona Beach. Leavell will complete the official family for the trials. Mulford stated today that he has his car in perfect trim for smashing world records, and all that is now awaited is the placing of the electrical timing apparatus, testing of the wiring and necessary preliminaries. It is expected that it will be about Friday before earnest efforts will be made to break the records, as it will take Leavell several days to get his timing apparatus perfect, due to change in climatic conditions, and the blowing of the sand on the beach, which handicaps perfect timing.

Mulford is putting his car over the beach daily at 100 miles an hour, and is only awaiting the chance to "step on the gas" to the limit, with the timer catching his speed.

It will be necessary to time a portion of the 10 mile race with stop watches, as the wiring extends but five miles down the beach.

While Mulford holds the world record for stock cars for one mile, he is most desirous of lowering Cunningham's ten mile record, which has stood for many years, but which the smiling speed fiend has every confidence he can break with his fast Paige.

ENGLAND'S DEFENSE TAKES MANY PRECAUTIONS TO GUARD AGAINST SINN FEIN.

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

LONDON, Jan. 8.—John Bull has taken elaborate precautions to prevent Sinn Fein from "carrying the war to England."

Here are some of the defensive measures perfected:

ONE—A vast secret service is working in Ireland to uncover plans for Sinn Fein operations in England.

TWO—The coast guard has been strengthened to keep out Sinn Fein agents.

THREE—All ships, shipyards, warehouses and docks are closely watched.

FOUR—Downing street, where Lloyd George lives, has been shut off by a high wall, with entrance by permit only.

FIVE—The houses of Parliament are heavily guarded by uniformed and plain clothes officers outside and inside the buildings; loitering in the halls or lobbies is prohibited; a "strategic" telephone system has been installed; armed boats patrol the Thames river side of the building.

(United Press.)

Densel is being sued by Miss Trina Hahnbach, a former choir girl with whom he is alleged to have eloped, for $25,000. Densel is married, and the father of several children.

Many of White House Workers Regarded as "Fixtures" for Term

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—When President-elect Warren Gamaliel Harding takes over the reins of the executive branch of the United States government from President Woodrow Wilson on March 4 he will find a large, well-trained and efficient group of workers both in the executive offices and the White House proper ready and willing to assist in making his administration a successful one.

With but few exceptions, comparatively speaking, these employees carry on from administration to administration, regardless of its political complexion, and are regarded as indispensable to the smooth running of the executive machinery. Some of these employees are the only ones that the casual visitor to the White House sees during his inspection of the historic mansion, and others are never seen or heard of except by the officials with whom they come in contact during the performance of their daily routine. The terms of their service range from the 20 years of the oldest to the few months of the latest girl stenographer, borrowed from the rolls of another government department.

Thirty Years' Service

In point of actual service the oldest White House attaché is the chief usher at the executive mansion, I. H. Hoover. Hoover has completed 30 years' service, entering as an electrician and attending his present position upon the retirement of a number of years ago of Tom Stone. His assistant is Franklin Perkins, who has served through several administrations.

Perhaps the official best known to members of the legislative and other branches of the government and to people having official business at the White House is Rudolph Forster, whose official title is executive clerk. He joined the White House forces as a stenographer in 1896 at the beginning of McKinley's administration and was promoted to his present position in 1901. He handles the important correspondence of the President and prepares for his signature state papers and executive orders.

The chief clerk, Joseph M. Sharkey, appointment clerk, Charles L. Swain, and expert stenographer, Warren F. Johnson, were brought to the White House during the Wilson administration and do not expect to stay under President Harding's secretary, Swain is also President Wilson's confidential stenographer.

Others of the executive office staff who have served continuously through several administrations are Maurice C. Latta, record clerk, and Nelson P. Webster, disbursing clerk, who each have a record of 24 years' service.

Another important cog in the executive machinery which is rarely tampered with by the change of administration is the White House detail of Secret Service operatives responsible for the personal safety of the President. The President generally leaves the selection of this detail to the Chief of the Treasury Secret Service, and changes are also made by him.

The present detail is in charge of Richard Jarvis and consists of Edward Starling, Arnold Landvoigt, John J. Fitzgerald, John M. Slye, Walter J. Ferguson, Albert Peck and Charles Frederick, chauffeur. Walter Ferguson was recently sent out to President-elect Harding to join the group detailed by Chief Moran to guard the incoming President.

After a Demonstration, Hames Family Departs For Unknown Destination

(The Associated Press.)

Sheriff Morris and a posse comitatus was called to Daytona Beach this morning about one o'clock and the police department of Daytona was also called to the neighboring town. The call for assistance seems to have been an aftermath of the Hames incident of a couple of weeks ago when Arthur Hames was kidnapped and beaten, and his son, Grady Hames, was killed. It seems from reports that eight strangers marched to the Wilcox home, where Lena Hames was staying, and after surrounding the house and looking in the windows again disappeared. The street lights had by that time been turned out and Mrs. Wilcox, phoned States Attorney

UNIQUE LOVE AFFAIR ENDS IN ARREST OF THE ELOPING COUPLE

(United Press.)

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8.—Pierre Paul Authier, Highlands Park, Ill., chemist, and Mrs. Charlotte Franzen, of Madison, Wis., fugitives in a unique love affair, were arrested here today. The couple arrived yesterday. Authier is wanted on charges preferred by his wife for abandonment. The husband of Mrs. Franzen also swore out a warrant against him, charging Authier with holding him up for $100 and stealing his wife. Authier, before eloping with Mrs. Franzen, pointed a pistol at his head, forcing him to write a check and sign a paper waiving all rights to his wife, Franzen said.

CABINET CHANGES IN PROSPECT; ONLY TWO SELECTIONS SETTLED

(United Press.)

MADISON, Jan. 8.—Two final decisions have been made by Harding, it was learned authoritatively today. First, George B. Christian, Jr., will be secretary to the president; second, Harry M. Doughterty, of Columbus, will be the "Colonel House" of the Harding administration. These are the only two certainties which stand out from the confusion which surrounds the cabinet shuffling today. His place was virtually settled two weeks ago in all but a few points, but strong influences have undone his selection. He now appears uncertain as to what to do.

"WHITE BOOK" GIVES PROOF OF CHARGES AGAINST SINN FEIN

(International News Service.)

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The British cabinet today issued a "white book" on Ireland, purporting to back up Lloyd George in his recent charges that the Sinn Fein conspired with the Germans in the midst of the war "to stab England in the back."

The book details alleged connections between John Devoy, editor of the Gaelic-American, New York, James Daniel Cohan, president New York Irish leader, and Professor McNeill, a Sinn Fein leader, of Dublin, with former Ambassador Bernadotte in the United States, in German plots, subsequent to the outbreak of the war.

One document shows Bernadotte in code to Berlin saying Devoy informed him an uprising would begin in Ireland on Easter, 1918, and asking that arms be sent to Liverpool. Bernadotte notified Bernadotte that 20,000 rifles would be landed at Tralee Bay. The document, signed by Devoy, says Bernadotte arranged a wireless signal system between Germany and Ireland and explains where recruiting stations in Ireland were to be located.

It says when the United States entered the war communication between the German government and the Sinn Feiners was temporarily broken, though a messenger service was devised by Devoy.

Elks' Fair to Be Held in Armory, N. Beach Street

The Elks' Fair, which opens at the Armory building, February 7, will be the biggest thing of the kind ever attempted in Florida, and is attracting attention from outside the city. There will be a large attendance, not only from Daytona, but from all the surrounding towns. Never before have so many beautiful and costly articles been gathered together in this part of the country, as secured for this fair, and they will be disposed of in some manner during the time the fair will be held.

The Elks consider themselves fortunate in securing the services of an experienced manager, Col. Noble F. Martin, of Union, N. Y., to take charge of the fair. Col. Martin has been in the city for some time perfecting the arrangements and when the doors are opened it will be complete in every detail.

Ladies will be in charge of the booths. The country store will be filled with useful articles and everybody will be bustling. The Elks believe from far and near will be in attendance, and everyone is invited to take part in making it a great success.

Doors will be opened at 7:30 o'clock and the fair will continue until 10 p. m., and from that time until midnight there will be dancing, every evening. There will be something doing every minute.

Charity Fund Donations.

The following additional contributions were received yesterday:

Anthony Bros., one ladies' hand bag, one umbrella, one shirt waist, $25; Wehner Grocery, one case catfish, $5; Courson Studio, 3 Browne cameras, 12 films, $19; Dunn Bros., one refrigerator, $40; Hotel Howard, 1 doz. boxes sliced bacon, $7; J. Splendid Recital At Auditorium By Miss Sparks

It was a satisfied audience that left the Auditorium Friday evening after listening to the splendid recital given by Miss Lenora Sparks, the distinguished soprano soloist, recently of the Metropolitan Opera company. Miss Sparks' voice is of pure tone and of deep rich quality and a range that easily carries to the higher notes. She is a very pretty woman and at once wins her audience by her sweet smile and gracious stage manner.

Her accompanist, Miss Louise Lindner, contributed much to the program by the piano solos. It is rare that an accompanist possesses the ability for solo work, but Miss Lindner delighted her listeners. She is entirely of American training and is an American girl born and bred. Ohio is her native state.

While the audience showed an appreciation of the artistic rendition of the carefully selected program a little more response and enthusiasm on their part would have doubled their pleasure, for while Miss Sparks was enraptured after each group of songs, she would willingly have sung many more selections and the responses to her songs nearly always mean the giving of the well known and much loved melody and all people love to hear the songs that they themselves sang, rendered by an artist, and everybody enjoys hear the songs with which they are familiar.

To a representative of the News Miss Sparks said: "I love to sing for American audiences because they are so responsive and liberal with their applause."

The songs by her were varied in their appeal, some of them filled with laughter and song and others with tears, and Miss Sparks was very expressive in her rendition of a program that was entirely classical, and the evening was one of rare delight to all music lovers fortunate enough to be present.

Jack Albright Has A Splendid Record On Wrestling Game

In glancing over the numerous newspaper clippings and scrap books of Jack Albright, New York wrestler, who meets Tom Marvin of Jacksonville at the Daytona Armory Monday night next, one can get some idea of the remarkable number of contests the New York wonder has engaged in.

Starting his professional career at the age of 17 years, Albright has put in nearly 14 years as a professional wrestler engaging in contests in nearly every state in the Union as well as different parts of Canada and Mexico. His professional contests number well over the 1,000 mark and he bears the distinction of never having been defeated at his weight. Among the foes whom Albright has met and defeated are such names as: Mike Abbot, at Chel Butler, John Strahl, Martin Cobb, Sam Miller, John Lemphill, Chas. Case, Otto Sosa, Dennis Allen, Albert Butler, Jack Graham, John Fly, Carl Busch, Ed. Adams, John Coleman, Jack Riley, Con Hargerty and many others.

His longest match was with Paul Bowser, Pittsburgh light heavyweight. HAINES COX, RUN OVER BY CAR, HAS FIGHTING CHANCE

Although his life was despaired of last evening, Haines Cox, 11 years old peninsula boy, who was run over Friday afternoon by a car driven by E. M. Williams, of the Florida Realty company, was reported slightly improved this morning, with a chance of recovery.

Haines, who resides with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Parent, of Peninsula Drive and Walkerville, Ont., his parents being dead, was returning from school with some other boys about 4 o'clock and had reached the corner of Duke street and Grandview avenue, when it is supposed that he caught onto the rear end of a Ridge-way truck, driven by W. A. Thompson, which was carrying a load of trash from the Auditorium.

The boy apparently dropped off the truck, squarely in front of the car being driven by Mr. Williams, who was passing slowly and cautiously, as the sand at this point is quite heavy. The first Mr. Williams knew that he had struck the boy was the impact which he felt at the wheel, and when he stopped, was horrified to find that he had run over the boy, seriously injuring him. He was carried to the Seaside Drug store, and from there by ambulance to Dr. Klock's hospital, where several surgeons were summoned to care for the boy.

It was found that his right leg was broken above the knee and that a hemorrhage was forming in the stomach, with bleeding at the eyes, nose and mouth. The physicians reported that the boy spent a comfortable night, and upon his returning to consciousness this morning, it was believed he had a fighting chance of recovery, his youth and wonderful vitality standing him in good stead. No blame was attached to Mr. Williams for the accident, which, from reports of bystanders, was entirely unavoidable.

MR. AND MRS. WHITE, PORT ORANGE ARE GRANDPARENTS

Many friends in Daytona will be pleased to know of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Frederick of Allentown, Pa., the mother having formerly been Mrs. Elizabeth Francis White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. White of Port Orange, and of Ocean Grove, N. J.

An account of the welcoming of the representative of the new generation as follows is from the recent issue of the Allentown "Evening Item":

"An event in military law and political circles occurred this morning when Capt. and Mrs. Herbert B. Frederick welcomed a seven-pound baby daughter into their family circle at 2216 Chew St. The little stranger is the first grandchild on either the paternal or maternal side. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Frederick of 1027 Walnut St. and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. White of Port Orange, Fla.

"Capt. Frederick who is treasurer of the Democratic county committee and the unopposed nominee for president of the Lehigh Democratic club, states with the new authority of a proud parent that she is to grow up to be a real Jefferson-Jackson-Democrat."

Picture Theatre in New Town Now Mass of Ruins

Fire almost completely destroyed the moving picture theatre for colored people at New Town, one of the colored districts of Daytona, the second fire to visit colored picture show buildings in two days in Daytona.

The fire department was called to the blaze shortly after 4 o'clock this morning, but by the time the call was put in and the fire engine arrived, the roof had fallen in, and the building was beyond saving. The huge wooden building made one of the most spectacular fires of the season, pieces of the paper roof being found strewn along Beach street this morning. Many neighboring properties were also endangered from the falling, blazing material.

The firing of scores of guns in the colored section of the city, to attract a crowd, roused almost all the negro residents, and many whites, but efforts to save the building were without avail.

From the fact that two picture shows in colored town, all there were, have been burned in two days, at exactly the same time of the morning, has led to a belief expressed on the streets that both jobs were the work of incendiaries. John Cusht, the owner of the Midway show house which burned Thursday morning, is of the opinion that his house was set fire to, and it is now believed that the second fire was also started by an unknown person.

Shelden Richardson, the colored proprietor of the New Town theatre, which burned last night, could give no cause as to the origin of the fire.

Many Attend the Opening of Opera House, Seabreeze

A large and representative number of patrons were present at the opening of the Seabreeze Opera House Friday evening, which has been transformed into a modern picture theatre by Lorillard Reynolds, the feature of the evening being Douglas Fairbanks in "The Mollycoddle," by far the greatest picture this popular actor has ever portrayed on the screen.

The entire second floor of the large building on Ocean Boulevard is given over to the theatre, with the projection room and gallery on the third floor.

The house is tastefully decorated and newly furnished, making one of the most comfortable picture houses in the Triple Cities.

The Fairbanks picture will be repeated this evening, while Charles Ray, in "Peaceful Valley," will be shown Monday. Matinees were commenced this afternoon, to continue throughout the season.

Mr. Reynolds is to be congratulated upon the success which he has attained in the transforming of the Seabreeze Opera House into a picture show theatre of the highest class. First releases on all the big pictures have been obtained by the manager, giving to the Triple Cities another theatre of exceptional comfort and attraction.

A tea room on the main floor is at the service of the patrons of the theatre, which it is believed will be one of the most popular in Seabreeze this season, located as it is in the center of the Seabreeze hotel district.

The walls of the tea room are decorated with pastel shades, the red and white of a banquet room at the College Arms hotel last night after which Mrs. Jennings addressed the club.

Monday Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Stanley will be the guests of Mrs. E. M. Callaway of Sanford, chairman of the good roads committee of the Florida Federation. Returning to Daytona, they will leave Tuesday on a motor trip to the southern part of the state, making addresses at Fort Pierce, West Palm Beach and Miami.

Donn Byrne, Well Known Short Story Writer, and Mrs. Byrne, Playwright, Are at Bretton Inn

Among the many celebrities spending the winter season as guests of the Bretton Inn, at Ormond Beach are Mr. and Mrs. "Donn Byrne," the former being the well known short story writer, contributor to many popular magazines and the latter being known as "Dolly Byrne" on the theatre programs of New York, Mrs. Byrne being one of the writers of the famous play "Enter Madame," which has taken New York by storm this season.

Few of the thousands of people who have enjoyed the short stories written under the name of "Donn Byrne," know that he dropped his two given names when he took up writing and goes by the combination of his last name. As one may judge by the name "there's some Irish in him," and in his delightful wife, and two children who make up the family party at the Bretton Inn.

While Byrne has been widely known for the past eight or nine years, as a newspaper writer and short story writer, in fact ever since he returned from Ireland and the continent where he acquired a university degree and a charming wife, Mrs. Byrne has but recently leaped into fame as a playwright with Gilda Verba in the writing of "Enter Madame," a farce comedy which has been pronounced by critics as the greatest comedy on the American stage in many years, and which is pronounced by the theatre producers as one of the greatest money makers on the stage today.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Byrne are continuing their congenial work at the Bretton Inn this winter, having closed their cozy home at Greenwich, Ct., for the season, and are enjoying the delights of Ormond, in company with their little children.

Educated in Dublin

Donn Byrne, who confessed to but 31 years of age, was born in New York City, but received his education at University College, Dublin, Ireland, from where his parents came. He received an honorary degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1909, and studied English literature in Paris and Leipzig for several years following. In 1911 he was married to Miss Dorothy Mary Elizabeth Cadogan of Waterford and Dublin, Ireland, the couple returning to New York where Byrne was then employed on the editorial staffs of the New York Sun and Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

His short stories, which are invariably along sporting lines, as Donn is a fan of the rabbit kind, and a patron of sport and an international athlete, then began to appear in the Saturday Evening Post, McClure's, Scribner's, The American, Century, Everybody's, and Hearst's, he now being a contributor to the International Magazine. In addition to his story writing Byrne has written several authoritative works on boxing and wrestling, and two books, "Stories Without Women" 1915, and "The Stranger's Banquet," 1919.

Byrne is a member of the International Sporting Club of New York, the Riverside, Conn., Yacht Club and the Woodway, Conn., Golf Club, and may be seen most any day on the Ormond links enjoying a round of golf.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Byrne are greatly interested in their life work of amusing others, and have that invaluable sense of humor which has made the works of both of the highest class.

Mahons Have Returned

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mahon, of Winchester, Ky., who have spent many seasons past at the Bretton Inn, have returned for this winter and are comfortably located. Mr. Mahon is interested in the production of coal in the fields of Kentucky.

R. L. Foley and family of Winter Park, Fla., were week-end guests of Manager J. P. Vining of the Bretton Inn. Mr. Foley is manager of the Seaside Hotel at Winter Park.

Among season guests who have arrived at the Bretton Inn, to remain throughout the season are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevens and Miss Stevens, and Miss Ten Eyck of Englewood, N. J., Mrs. M. R. Krim and Miss Flowers of Galien, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Laughlin of Zellwood, Fla., were guests at the Bretton Inn over the week end. The Laughlin place at Zellwood is one of the most widely known properties in the state, which many claim to be the most beautiful spot in the state, with its foliage and trees and sub-tropical beauty of many years standing.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Perkins recently opened their cottage immediately north of the Bretton Inn which they will occupy as usual this season. Wm. Ellison of Boston, also a guest at the Bretton Inn has purchased some property in Ormond Beach and will shortly build. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McConnell of Spiffen, N. Y., have also recently purchased some land on the beach and will erect a home next year.

Among other guests at the Bretton Inn recently were Mr. and Mrs. James J. Ray of Pittsburgh, M. Rosarna of Boston, who conducted a motor party to Florida, and who is expected shortly to return from a short trip to St. Petersburg, Stuart Delvon of Jacksonville and R. A. Potter of Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Killmer of Dublin, Ireland, are spending their second season at the Bretton Inn, recently arrived from abroad for the winter here.

HOTEL DESPLAND

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Vail, of Milton, N. Y., arrived Thursday at the Despland hotel and will spend several weeks there. Mr. Vail is a fruit grower on a large scale and makes a specialty of apples. Both he and Mrs. Vail are enjoying the wonderful change in climate that a trip from New York state has brought them, however, they left pleasant winter weather in the north. They feel that a few weeks spent each year and the sunshine and flowers of Florida adds very much to their good physical condition as well as to their enjoyment of life.

V. O. Hopf of New York has been a business visitor in Daytona and while in the city made his headquarters at the Despland.

Among the many advantages of the Despland that the guests, especially the women appreciate, is its central location. They enjoy being so near the shopping district and express themselves as thoroughly pleased with the stores in Daytona and the quality of goods displayed by the merchants. Few towns of its size can boast of shops competing with those in Daytona.

J. H. Butterfield, assistant manager says that owing to the unusually fine weather being enjoyed in the north during the early winter, the tourists are coming to Florida a little later this year, but that the height of the season will see the usual crowds at the Despland and other hotels and the regular winter crowds here.

One feature enjoyed by the Despland guests is the exceptionally good music furnished twice daily by the orchestra. The music is in charge of Harry Dwyer, who not only directs, but also plays the flute.

Old Resident of Ormond, Edward W. Amsden, Dead

Edward W. Amsden, for a great many years past, a resident of Ormond, where he conducted a dairy business until recently, passed away at his home Friday morning.

Funeral arrangements are at present indefinite, awaiting the arrival of his daughter, Mrs. L. S. Lyon, who has been in Philadelphia and who is expected here in a day or two.

Mrs. Amsden was well known among the older residents of the community, and was a venerable old gentleman, of 76 years, loved and respected by all who knew him. He had recently purchased a home in Ormond having retired from his dairy business.

Announcement of funeral arrangements, which are in charge of Birmingham & Moley, will be made as soon as definite word is received from Mrs. Lyon.

PRINCESS ISSENA

Mr. and Mrs. C. Birdsell, of Nutley, N. J., who have been spending some time at the Princess Isseena departed Thursday for Rutledge, Florida, where they will spend several weeks. When the weather becomes uncomfortable warm there, they will return to the Princess Isseena for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brinkman and daughter were dinner guests at the Princess Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Fairchild and Miss E. M. Dierks of Buffalo arrived in Seabreeze Thursday and will spend some time at the Princess Isseena.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Hurd of Akron, Ohio, have arrived at the Princess Isseena for a stay of several weeks.

Pennsylvania State National Guard has 87 motor vehicles.

RIDGEWOOD HOTEL

There is always a limited number of guests about the big hotels at this season of the year and it is not until the middle of February that the people are here in great numbers and life is at its height.

Frank Webber of the Ridgewood said this condition was always to be expected and that he in a measure provided for it by having his helpers come in relays. The first ones came to be present when the doors were opened, another relay will come the latter part of this month and another about the middle of February when the house will be well filled with guests old and new.

Miss Constance Corley of Burlington, Vt., is the leader of the orchestra at the Ridgewood again this season. This is her third year and she is rendering excellent service.

Among the interesting guests at the Ridgewood early in the week was Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelly of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mrs. Kelly was here to present a morning musicale to the members of the Palmeth club and their friends at the clubhouse Friday morning. Thursday evening she was a guest of the club at the annual banquet at the Hotel Clarendon. She is possessed of rare musical ability and training and her musicale of Friday morning was all that had been anticipated and the club members delighted with its results. Mrs. Kelly is the wife of Edgar Stillman Kelly who is a composer of classical music and as such has attained considerable eminence. His best known composition is the musical rendition of Ben Hur. To a representative of the News Mrs. Kelly said: "I am delighted with Daytona, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze, and with the people of these cities. I have very thoroughly enjoyed my brief stay and although I made the long journey from Cincinnati for such a short visit I feel well repaid. The weather is wonderful and all the surroundings are ideal. I shall surely hope to again visit the Triple Cities." Mrs. Kelly departed Friday afternoon for her return trip to Cincinnati, but she made many friends while here.

Other recent arrivals at the Ridgewood are: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Falls, of Milford, Conn.; Miss Elizabeth M. O'Neil of Holyoke, Mass.; Miss Louise F. Hantz, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Ann M. Varner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Malcolm of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm have for many years been winter guests here and have many friends here.

HOTEL CLARENDON

Among the day's arrivals at the Clarendon were: Mrs. W. E. Jones, U. S. N.; Master Ely Hite, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hite, of Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. D. A. McCaskill, of Montreal, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Fall of Milford, Conn.; Miss Lenora Sparks and Miss Louise Lindner and William W. Bright of New York City; G. J. Sharsburg of Washington D. C. and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Howard, of Chicago.

The K. K. L. K., Clarendon Corner Club, held its first annual meeting last Friday evening. It was a sort of the preliminary meeting. The gathering was small. During the general talk the question was asked, "Who are those large streams of people streaming by?" "Well, they are the Palmeth club from Daytona, going into the dining room, either to see Donny O'Keefe or to not something to eat, probably both." "Well, that settles it, no show for us here with those fellows here tonight."

At a specially-called session of the legislative branch of the croquet players of Daytona Beach-Seabreeze, presided over by Attorney N. C. Weyer of Michigan, it was decided that hereafter no pull or push shots would be allowed in making the center arches; that no four handed game shall continue more than an hour and a half, at the end of which time the game shall be called a draw and the balls turned over to other players.
